APP
PESHAWAR

Peshawar Police Lines spokesperson Muhammad Alam Khan has clarified that there is no general restriction on journalists' entry to the Police Lines.

In a statement issued on Friday, he said access to the premises could be temporarily restricted in response to security threats or unusual security situations.

He said such measures were not intended to target any particular group, but were taken solely to protect the Police Lines and ensure the safety of those inside the premises.

The spokesperson said Peshawar police held the journalist community in high regard and treated media representatives with respect and dignity.

He said journalists played an important role in providing accurate information to the public and added that the police attached considerable importance to cooperation and effective communication with the media.

Muhammad Alam Khan said any temporary restriction on entry during a particular security situation should not be interpreted as a permanent ban on journalists.

He urged journalists to cooperate with police personnel and comply with their instructions during unusual security situations, saying such cooperation would help protect journalists as well as other people present on the premises.

PHC adjourns KP CM's petition in ECP notice case

PESHAWAR (APP): The Peshawar High Court (PHC) on Friday adjourned until October 7 the hearing of a petition filed by Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Chief Minister Muhammad Sohail Afridi challenging an Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP) notice over his remarks about government officials during the Haripur by-election campaign.

A two-member bench comprising Justice Arshad Ali and Justice Muhammad Faheem Wali heard the petition.

During the proceedings, the chief minister's counsel sought an adjournment, stating that the power of attorney had been submitted only on Thursday and that he needed more time to prepare his arguments.

Opposing the request, the ECP's counsel told the court that the hearing had already been adjourned six times at the petitioner's request. He also pointed out that the matter had previously been heard on its merits before the Election Commission.

The ECP's counsel further argued that the chief minister's petition was no longer maintainable.

The bench cautioned that no further adjournment would be granted at the next hearing. Justice Arshad Ali observed that the case would not be postponed beyond October 7.
