Korean grant at risk over museum delay

Senate panel directs CDA, Ministry of Heritage & Culture to settle the matter on priority

ZULFIQAR BAIG ISLAMABAD

The Senate Standing Committee on National Heritage and Culture has directed the Capital Development Authority (CDA) and the Ministry of National Heritage and Culture to resolve the outstanding land-transfer issue for the proposed National Museum of Pakistan at Shalimar Park at the earliest, warning that a $6.79 million Korean Grant-in-Aid could lapse if delays persist.

The direction was issued during a committee meeting chaired by Senator Hidayatullah Khan at the Old PIPB Hall, Parliament Lodges, Islamabad, where members also expressed serious displeasure over the absence of senior CDA officials, including the CDA Chairman.

The Chairman directed that the Ministry of Interior be informed of the committee's concerns, stressing that parliamentary committees should not be undermined. The committee was briefed on the land framework for project and preserving heritage sites across Pakistan. Senator Shahadat Awan, mover of the agenda item, raised concerns over the neglect of Ranikot Fort, which is on UNESCO's Tentative List, and highlighted the lack of effective coordination between the federal government and Sindh over conservation efforts for the Great Wall of Sindh, also known as the Wall of Asia.

The Secretary, Ministry of National Heritage and Culture, said Pakistan's UNESCO World Heritage nominations were made on the recommendation of the Federal Government. He said ministry officials had been trained to prepare nomination dossiers and that UNESCO had been requested to consider more than one dossier from Pakistan annually, despite the existing limit of one dossier per country each year.

The committee also expressed concern over delays in heritage preservation

The committee was informed that Pakistan had received the UNESCO inscription for the traditional clay musical instrument Borendo and was currently working to secure the inscription of Bhimbhore on the World Heritage List. The ministry said it maintained regular coordination with provincial governments for the protection of heritage and archaeological sites under the Antiquities Act.

The committee also expressed concern over encroachments around protected heritage sites and called for effective enforcement of the prescribed 200-foot buffer zone. It sought a report on 533 priceless artefacts returned from the United States, including details of their illegal removal from Pakistan and action taken against those responsible. Regarding the upcoming Lok Virsa Mela, the committee was informed that cultural ministers from all Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) member states would be invited, while Lahore has been declared the Cultural Capital of the SCO.

Senator Hidayatullah Khan recommended inviting all provincial chief ministers, as well as the Chief Minister of Gilgit-Baltistan and the Prime Minister of Azad Jammu and Kashmir, observing that heritage and culture transcend regional boundaries and promote national unity and harmony.

The Chairman directed the ministry to provide details of co-ordination meetings held with provincial authorities during the past six months, along with province-wise expenditure on heritage preservation. He also recommended increasing the ministry's budget and exploring self-sufficiency through heritage, cultural and archaeological tourism.

The committee adopted the report of its sub-committee on administrative issues and renovation of Mazra-e Quaid, Karachi. Senator Syed Waqar Mehdhi proposed converting the Radio Pakistan Karachi building into a cultural and heritage museum.

The committee stressed that Pakistan's national heritage must be protected and preserved as a reflection of the country's history, identity and cultural legacy.

Murder probe launched in lawyer's death

SALEH MUHAMMAD BANGALORE

Police have registered a murder case against the brother of lawyer Sanaulah Satti, whose body was found in a car parked at the Lawyers Club parking area of the New Judicial Complex, on the complaint of his brother, Barrister Sajjad Ahmed.

The FIR mentions injuries on both elbows and shoulders of the deceased and expresses suspicion that he may have been given a poisonous substance. Police have registered the case and started investigation.

According to police, Barrister Sajjad Ahmed

Satti told them that he was a resident of Islamabad and associated with the legal profession. His brother, Sanaulah Satti, was also a lawyer and lived with his family in Gulzar-e-Quaid. He had a daughter aged about one year.

He said he was informed that the body of his brother, advocate Sanaulah Satti, had been found inside his car (88/BAX), parked in the parking area in front of the New Judicial Complex Lawyers Club, Rawalpindi.

He, along with other lawyers, reached the spot and found his brother's body on the driver's seat.

He said white foam and blood were coming from the victim's mouth, while the apparent injury marks were visible on both elbows and on the right and left shoulders.

Police called the forensic team to the scene, collected evidence and took into possession two mobile phones being used by the deceased. They also started the process of obtaining recordings from CCTV cameras installed at the District Courts, Rawalpindi.

'Mao architect of Pak-China friendship'

Event marks 50th death anniversary of Chinese leader Chairman Mao Zedong

OUR CORRESPONDENT ISLAMABAD

Speakers at a special event marking the 50th death anniversary of Chinese leader Chairman Mao Zedong praised his historic contributions to China and the world. The largely attended function was hosted by the Pakistan-China Institute, whose chairman, Senator Mushahid Hussain Sayed, delivered the keynote address.

In his keynote speech,

Senator Mushahid Hussain Sayed said Chairman Mao was among the three historical giants of the 20th century who shaped the course of history through their leadership and vision, the other two being the leader of the Russian Revolution, Vladimir Lenin, and the founder of Pakistan, Quaid-i-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah.

Terming Chairman Mao the builder of new China, Senator Mushahid Hussain said that during the quarter century of his rule, Chairman Mao liberated Chinese peasants from feudalism, doubled life expectancy, increased the literacy rate from 10 per cent to 93 per cent, made China a nuclear power through indigenous efforts in science and technology and emancipated Chinese women, while ensuring food, clothing, housing and basic health facilities for all Chinese.

He thus laid the foundation of today's peaceful, prosperous and powerful China. The first was in 1935, when Chairman Mao led the Long March, which saved the Communist Party and preserved the People's Liberation Army.

Other speakers praised Chairman Mao for being a genuine revolutionary, great thinker and philosopher and a selfless patriot whose focus remained on the welfare of the Chinese people.
