Microsurgical procedure
Doctors at Holy Family Hospital have successfully reattached the severed hand of a five-year-old boy through surgery.
The five-hour operation involved replantation and a complex microsurgical procedure.
According to officials, five-year-old Umair, a resident of Bhumb, was instantaneously brought to the Plastic Surgery Department of Holy Family Hospital after his body was severed from his body by a toka machine. Head of Department Dr Hasnain, Dr Tayyab, Dr Ambreen Mirhas and their team successfully reattached the child's severed hand through a complex replantation surgery.
The hand of five-year-old Umar, a resident of Bhelum, had been completely severed from his body by a blow from the machine.

tached to a complex microsurgical procedure. During the operation, blood vessels, veins and other important structures were restored through an extremely delicate and complex technique, resulting in the restoration of blood flow to the hand.
The timely action of doctors at Holy Family Hospital led to the successful reattachment of the five-year-old boy's severed hand.
Doctors advised citizens that if any body part is severed in an accident, it should not be placed directly on ice but should be preserved in a clean plastic bag.

BAZYA KHAN
The National Commission on the Rights of Women (NCRW) has issued a high-level advisory by senior police officers with across Pakistan to deal with the alarming rise in violence, rape, murder, sexual harassment and other forms of gender-based violence.
The advisory expressed grave concern over the increasing incidents and took strict notice of cases including the Hina Javed, Ayat Noor and Asma Jattak cases, as well as recent cases in Sindh, including the tragic deaths of three-year-old Kulsoom Mohammed Qasim and 18-month-old Aizal in Karachi. The Commission also expressed concern for GBV cases, speedy disposal and prevention of delays in justice. The NCSW directed enhanced monitoring, surveillance and preventive measures in areas where girls face threats inside and outside their homes. "We Pakistan should
