Punjab bans camera-equipped glasses, spy gadgets, LHC told

NEWS WIRE
LAHORE

The Punjab government has informed the Lahore High Court (LHC) that it has imposed a ban on the sale and purchase of camera-equipped eyeglasses and covert surveillance devices across the province.

Chief Justice Aalia Neelum was hearing a petition filed through Advocate Shehram Saki challenging the sale of camera-enabled eyeglasses. During the proceedings, a counsel for the Punjab government submitted a report stating that the provincial government had prohibited the sale and purchase of camera-equipped glasses and secret surveillance devices.

Federal law officer Riffat Dogar informed the court that the federal cabinet had approved proposals forwarded by the Economic Coordination Committee (ECC) regarding the ban. He added that the federal government had sought reports from the provinces by November 25. The court directed the federal government to submit a detailed report on the matter by the next hearing. The petitioner had challenged the sale of camera-equipped eyeglasses and sought a ban on their sale. The court adjourned further proceedings until December 8.

Romanian soprano receives Global Ambassador Award for promoting cultural ties with Pakistan

OUR STAFF REPORTER
ISLAMABAD

Romanian soprano and music educator Georgiana Costea-Glugă received the 2026 Global Ambassador Award for Cultural Diplomacy through Music in recognition of her contributions to strengthening cultural relations between Romania and Pakistan. The award was presented at the 8th Global Ambassador Awards Ceremony here, attended by diplomats, community leaders and representatives of various institutions.

Chairman of the Prime Minister's Youth Programme Rana Mashhood Ahmad Khan and Romanian Ambassador to Pakistan Dan Stoenescu were among the prominent personalities present at the ceremony. The awards jury recognised Costea-Glug? for her efforts to promote cultural understanding and strengthen people-to-people connections between the two countries through music education and performances. Since April 2025, she has been conducting weekly opera singing classes in Islamabad under a partnership between the Embassy of Romania and the Pakistan National Council of the Arts (PNCA).

The initiative provides young Pakistani singers with opportunities to develop their vocal techniques, gain exposure to classical opera and explore Romanian and other European musical traditions. Besides her teaching activities, Costea-Glug? has introduced Romanian and European classical music to audiences in Islamabad and Karachi through her performances, contributing to greater appreciation of Romania's cultural heritage in Pakistan. Her work draws on her musical education at the National University of Music Bucharest and the Santa Cecilia Conservatory in Rome, alongside a performing career spanning Europe and Asia.

Punjab CM Maryam approves Panchayat system across Punjab

Punjab Chief Minister Maryam Nawaz Sharif on Wednesday in-principle approved the establishment of a Panchayat system across the province to provide citizens with an accessible, speedy and low-cost mechanism for resolving local disputes through mutual consent.

Chairing a meeting on the proposed system here on Wednesday, she said the Punjab government was introducing the Punjab Panchayat Act to revive the centuries-old tradition of community mediation within a proper legal framework and make people partners in the justice system. She said courts should not necessarily be the first forum for resolving every mutual dispute, adding that minor conflicts could be settled through dialogue, mutual understanding and the wisdom of respected community members.

According to a briefing, Panchayat committees would be established at union council, village, locality and mouza levels. The committees would resolve disputes with the mutual consent of the parties concerned. Deputy Commissioners would appoint permanent local residents enjoying public confidence as Panchayat members. The selection would be based on good reputation, impartiality and wisdom. Proposed members would include lambardars, teachers, retired judges, retired army officers, retired civil servants and other respected community figures.

Lambardars, teachers, retired govt officials will be appointed as Panchayat members

The briefing said the system would facilitate access to justice for women, minorities, poor and disadvantaged segments of society. It would operate within clearly defined legal boundaries while fully preserving citizens' right to approach courts and seek judicial protection. The CM directed the relevant authorities to prepare a comprehensive plan covering rules, policy guidelines and regulations for the proposed Panchayat program.

She also called for clear criteria to define the powers and jurisdiction of Panchayat committees. A negative list specifying matters outside the Panchayat's jurisdiction would also be introduced to prevent possible misuse of the system against women and vulnerable segments of society, the meeting was informed. CM Maryam Nawaz said the initiative aimed to empower people at the grassroots level by giving them a role in resolving their own disputes. She said the Panchayat system would help reduce the burden of cases on courts and make speedy and affordable justice possible through community-based mediation. The CM said the government was committed to bringing justice to people's doorsteps through meaningful social reforms.

Pak, Bangladesh should strengthen cooperation in education, climate change: Ishaq Dar

OUR STAFF REPORTER
ISLAMABAD

Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Ishaq Dar yesterday called for enhanced cooperation between Pakistan and Bangladesh in education reforms, climate change and other areas, stressing that sharing experiences, ideas and perspectives could benefit both countries.

Addressing a delegation of 35 senior Bangladeshi civil servants at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Dar said greater interaction and exchange of knowledge would provide valuable opportunities for the two countries to learn from each other's experiences. The delegation in an Executive Leadership Training Programme organised by the Executive Development Institute of the National School of Public Policy under the Pakistan-Bangladesh Knowledge Corridor.

Welcoming the visiting officials, the deputy prime minister highlighted the longstanding bonds of friendship and shared cultural values between Pakistan and Bangladesh. He said Pakistan wished Bangladesh well and expressed confidence that the delegation's visit would provide both sides with an opportunity to learn from each other and further strengthen bilateral understanding. Dar welcomed the positive developments in bilatstan's commitment to building stronger ties with Bangladesh on the foundations of mutual respect, trust and goodwill.

He emphasised the importance of the Pakistan-Bangladesh Knowledge Corridor in promoting education, professional training and institutional linkages between the two countries. The programme, he said, would facilitate the exchange of experiences in governance and public administration while helping establish lasting professional networks and strengthen friendly relations between the two countries. The DPM also highlighted Pakistan's provision of educational scholarships to Bangladeshi students, reflecting its commitment to promoting academic cooperation and people-to-people contacts. He expressed the hope that the visiting delegation's stay in Pakistan would be productive, pleasant and memorable.

Thar Coal supplies 3500 MW electricity to national grid: Sharjeel

NEWS WIRE
KARACHI

Sindh Senior Minister and Provincial Minister for Information, Transport and Mass Transit Sharjeel Inam Memon on Wednesday said that more than 3,500 megawatts of electricity was being generated from Thar coal and supplied to the national grid, yet power and gas load-shedding continued in Sindh. Addressing a session of the Sindh Assembly, the senior minister expressed concern over the persistent power and gas shortages despite electricity generation from Thar coal. He said that due to the shortage of gas, even residents of Karachi's posh areas were being forced to use gas cylinders to meet their basic household needs. Sharjeel Memon also criticised the MQM leadership, alleging that although the party is a coalition partner in the federal government, its members were not doing enough to address the problems faced by people in their respective constituencies.
