...arrested shortly after his release from the jail, according to defence lawyer Qadir Khan. The prosecution filed separate applications before anti-terrorism courts seeking cancellation of Wazir's bail in three cases lodged at different police stations. The applications have been filed before the ATC-III, V and VII where these cases are pending. In one of the applications filed through an assistant prosecutor general, it was stated that

...the learned court failed to appreciate that such offences disentitle the accused from the concession of bail," the application read. It said that the court's erroneous reliance on delay in lodging of the FIR as the ground for the grant of bail stood sufficiently explained due to the sensitive nature of the offence,

...conditions implicit in the grant of bail and as such liberty so granted has been converted into a license to perpetuate similar offences." The courts have been requested to cancel the post-arrest bail granted to Ali Wazir in these cases. The ATC-V has issued a notice to Wazir's lawyer to submit his response to the plea on April 14. The ATC-III has adjourned the hearing of the prosecution's plea till March 31, while ATC-VII until April 2.
