OUR STAFF REPORTER PESHAWAR

A meeting of the Standing Committee on Home and Tribal Affairs of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Assembly held on Tuesday at the Provincial Assembly Secretariat, chaired by Committee Chairman and Member of the Provincial Assembly, Tariq Saeed.

In addition to committee members, the meeting was attended by Law Minister Aftab Alam, Members of the Provincial Assembly Iftikhar Ali Mashwani, Sajjad Ullah, Adnan Wazir, Ihsan Mian Khel, former Deputy Speaker Mahmood Jan, Ahmad Kundi, Ms. Shahid Bibi, Afshan Hussain, Faiza Malik, and Shazia Jadoon. The Special Secretary Home, officials from the Police Department, Law Department, Assistant Advocate General, and relevant officers of the Provincial Assembly Secretariat were also present.

During the meeting, various important matters were discussed in detail. On a question raised by MPA Adnan Wazir regarding the arrests of individuals from the Janikhel tribe, the committee directed the police authorities to promptly resolve cases involving innocent individuals and ensure that those responsible are punished in accordance with the law.

Practical training vital to success in legal profession

PESHAWAR (Our Staff Reporter): Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Minister for Law, Human Rights, and Parliamentary Affairs, Aftab Alam while addressing a certificate distribution ceremony held here at the Advocate General Office for law students, who successfully completed a six-month apprenticeship programme, said that practical training holds fundamental importance for success in the legal profession.

He appreciated the students' hard work, dedication, and professional commitment, expressing hope that these young lawyers would play a significant role in strengthening the justice system in the future. During the ceremony, the minister emphasized that theoretical knowledge alone is not sufficient; rather, practical experience in the field is the true hallmark of a successful lawyer. He stressed that, in line with modern-day requirements, it is essential for legal professionals to stay updated with emerging trends, digital systems, and evolving legal frameworks. He urged the students to continuously enhance their professional skills and adopt integrity, diligence, and the rule of law as guiding principles in their careers.

Aftab Alam further said that the government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa is encouraging such programmes to build the capacity of young lawyers and provide them with better opportunities in the practical field.
