FORCE MAJEURE:

The Purchase Officers will take into consideration following:

Firm's Reply

a. The Parties will not be held responsible for any non-fulfillment or delay in carrying out the contractual obligations due to an event of Force Majeure such as acts of God (earthquake, flood, fire, typhoon, hurricane, mass epidemic diseases), war (military actions, subversive activities or sabotages), riots, civil commotion, strike, lockouts, prohibitive measures of governments (prohibition of trade relations with certain countries as a result of UN sanctions etc) directly affecting the parties and any event or circumstances on which the parties has no control.

b. To be deemed force-majeure, the said events should be of extraordinary, unpredictable and unavoidable nature, and occur after the contract comes into force and be beyond the control of the Parties.

c. Should the force-majeure circumstances occur, the suffering party must notify in writing the other party within 30 (thirty) days from occurrence thereof. The notice should contain information about the nature of the circumstances and, if possible, an evaluation or estimate of their probable impact upon performance of obligations under the contract, as well as the time required for such performance.

d. Upon termination of the above-mentioned circumstances, the suffered party should promptly give a relevant written notice to the other party. The notice should specify the time within which performance of obligations under the contract is being suggested.

e. Within reasonable time, the party exposed to force-majeure should transfer to the other party a certificate issued by the legal authorities as evidence of occurrence of the force-majeure situation.

f. Should the force-majeure situation occur, the timing of performance by the parties of their respective obligations under the contract shall be extended adequately by adding on the duration of such circumstances and consequences thereof..

g. Should the force-majeure circumstances continue for more than consecutive 60 (sixty) days, the parties shall negotiate and coordinate appropriate measures needed to perform their respective obligations under the contract. If duration of such circumstances exceeds 6 (six) months and the parties fail to agree on further coordinated measures to perform their respective obligations, the Contracting Party (Purchaser) shall have the right to terminate the contract, whether partially or wholly, free of any subsequent claims, by sending a written termination notice to the other party (Seller).

h. The Purchaser may not claim LD in relation to delays in delivery, provided that such delays have been caused by occurrence of a force-majeure event.

j. Delay in obtaining the export licenses, permits, and/or third-party certificate may not be counted as Force Majeure.

30.	TERMINATION OF CONTRACT If at any time during the currency of the contract the Purchaser decides to terminate the contract for any reason whatsoever (other than for reasons of Non-Delivery) he shall have right to do so by giving the Supplier a registered notice to that effect. In that event the Purchaser shall accept delivery at the contract price and terms of such stores/goods/services which are in the actual process of manufacture that is completed and ready for delivery within thirty days after receipt by the Supplier of such notice. a. In the case of remainder of the undelivered stores/goods/services the Purchaser may elect either: b. (1) To have any part thereof completed and take the delivery thereof at the contract price or. (2) To cancel the remaining quantity and pay to the Supplier for the articles or sub-components or raw materials purchased by the Supplier and are in the actual process of manufacture at the price to be determined by the Purchaser. In such a case materials in the process of manufacture shall be delivered by the Supplier to the Purchaser. (3) No payment shall however be made for any materials not yet in the actual process of manufacture on the date notice of cancellation is received. (4) Should the Supplier fail to deliver goods/services in time as per quality terms of contract or fail to render Bank Guarantee within the stipulated time period or any breach of the contract the Purchaser reserves the right to terminate/cancel the contract fully or any part thereof at the risk and expense (RE) of the Supplier. If due to any reasons Purchaser fails to perform its obligations required and needed for the smooth conduct and management of the Contract, Supplier has a right to initiate legal proceedings.
31.	SECURE EXCHANGE OF CORRESPONDENCE All correspondence pertaining to contract between Supplier and PN shall be on secured media.
32.	INDEMNITY The Supplier shall at all times indemnify the Purchaser against all claims which may be made in respect of the stores for infringement of any rights protected by Patent, Registration of Design or Trade Mark and shall take all risks of accidents or damages which may cause a failure of the supply from whatever cause arising and the entire responsibility for the sufficiency of all the means used by him for the fulfillment of the contract provided always that in the event of any claim in respect of alleged breach of Patent, Registered Design or Trade Mark being made against the Purchaser, the Purchaser shall notify the Supplier of the same and the Supplier shall be at liberty to settle any dispute or to conduct any litigation that may arise there from at his own expenses.
