The said notice should contain information about the nature of the circumstances and, if possible, contain an evaluation or estimate of their probable impact upon performance of obligations under the Contract, as well as the time required for such performance. - Upon termination of the above-mentioned circumstances, the suffered Party should promptly give a relevant written notice to the other Party. The said notice should specify the time, within which performance of obligations under the Contract is being suggested. - Within reasonable time, the Party exposed to force-majeure should transfer to the other

Firms Reply

Party a Certificate issued by the legal Authorities, as an evidence of occurrence of the force-majeure situation.

Firms Reply

f. If the force-majeure situation occurs; the timing of performance by the Parties of their respective obligations under the Contract shall be extended adequately, by adding on the duration of such circumstances and consequences thereof.

g. In case Force-Majeure circumstances continue for more than consecutive 60 (sixty) days, the Parties shall negotiate and coordinate appropriate measures needed to be taken in order to perform their respective obligations under the Contract. If duration of such circumstances exceeds 6 (six) months and the Parties fail to agree on further coordinated measures needed to perform their respective obligations, the Contracting Party (Purchaser) shall have the right to terminate the Contract, whether partially or wholly, free of any subsequent claims, by sending a written termination notice to the other Party (Seller).

h. Purchaser may not claim LD in relation to delays in delivery, provided that such delays have been caused by occurrence of a force-majeure event. It is the responsibility of the supplier to obtain licenses/ permits etc (if any) from country of export for the goods/ stores being offered in response to IT.

14. SUBLETTING The Supplier shall be entirely responsible for the execution of the contract in all respects according to the terms of the contract. The Supplier shall not sublet, transfer or assign the contract or any part thereof to any other firm/party without prior written permission of the Purchaser.

15. INDEMNITY The Supplier shall at all times indemnify the Purchaser against all claims which may be made in respect of the stores for infringement of any rights protected by Patent, Registration of Design or Trade Mark and shall take all risks of accidents or damages which may cause a failure of the supply from whatever cause arising and the entire responsibility for the sufficiency of all the means used by him for the fulfillment of the contract provided always that in the event of any claim in respect of alleged breach of Patent, Registered Design or Trade Mark being made against the Purchaser, the Purchaser shall notify the supplier of the same and the Supplier shall be at liberty to settle any dispute or to conduct any litigation that may arise there from at his own expenses.

16. TERMINATION

a. If at any time during the currency of the contract Purchaser decides to terminate the contract for any reason whatsoever (other than for reasons of non-delivery) he shall have right to do so by giving the supplier a registered notice to that effect. In that event the Purchaser shall accept delivery at the contract price and terms of such stores/goods/services which are in the actual process of manufacturing that is completed and ready for delivery within thirty days after receipt by the supplier of such notice.
